“ Too many memories to share but it's been a good journey knowing James since I was 14. He's always been a friend but more like a brother. I'll always cherish our vacations and special times together. We'll all miss his sense of humor for sure and his willingness to be Santa and make so many happy through his serving. I'm sure he touched many more people than he even realized. He told me he'd be waiting on us so until we meet again RIP my brother/friend.
