

Ronald Blair Thrift

January 5, 1940 - July 6, 2019

Ronald Blair Thrift, of Hueytown, Alabama, passed away on July 6, 2019 at the age of 79. He was a U.S. Navy veteran and work at the VA Museum. He is preceded in death by his parents, Anson and Bertha Thrift and several siblings. He is survived by his son, Jeffrey (Angela) Thrift; daughters, Melanie Thrift and Angela (Anthony) Stephenson; grandchildren, Jason (Britnie)Thrift, Taylor Thrift, Taryn Thrift and Kody and Conner Collins; great grandchildren, Kinslee and Kade Thrift; brother, Foster Thrift; and many other relatives and friends. A memorial service will be held on Monday, July 15, 2019 at 2:00 PM at the Alabama National Cemetery in Montevallo.

Cemetery

Alabama National Cemetery

Montevallo, AL,

Events

JUL Memorial Service 02:00PM

15

Alabama National Cemetery

Montevallo, AL, US

Comments

“ Peet Myburgh6 minutes ago

I met Ron as a young 18 yr old girl working in Jackson Wyoming. He was so funny and happy and it always made my day to see him. He took my roommate and I for rides in his station wagon that wouldn't go in reverse. We laughed at his stories. He worked as a waiter and we were his bussers---we laughed at how near closing and he wanted to go to bed, if people asked him about a dessert on the menu he would say in his thick Alabama accent, "Oh you won't like that. Oh, you won't like that either." He made us laugh and we loved him.

Just passing through Alabama remembering my old dear friend--RIP Ron Thrift from Alabama

Peet Myburgh - January 27, 2020 at 02:43 PM

“ I met Ron as a young 18 yr old girl working in Jackson Wyoming. He was so funny and happy and it always made my day to see him. He took my roommate and I for rides in his station wagon that wouldn't go in reverse. We laughed at his stories. He worked as a waiter and we were his bussers---we laughed at how near closing and he wanted to go to bed, if people asked him about a dessert on the menu he would say in his thick Alabama accent, "Oh you won't like that. Oh, you won't like that either." He made us laugh and we loved him.

Just passing through Alabama remembering my old dear friend--RIP Ron Thrift from Alabama

Peet Myburgh - January 27, 2020 at 02:36 PM

“ Large Basket Garden was purchased for the family of Ronald Blair Thrift.

July 15, 2019 at 12:32 PM

“ 2 files added to the album Alabama Veterans Museum & Archives

Sandra Thompson - July 09, 2019 at 02:24 PM