“ I can not leave a specific memory as there are so many. Papaw Tom was there for me throughout my life even if I was not physically in the same area. When I was 3 years old he came to Mobile during the aftermath of Hurricane Freddy in 1979 and found us in Mobile when there was no power internet and so forth just to bring us groceries. I would always look forward to every time I would get a chance to visit him because he was always so kind to me. He has always shared his stories of faith with me it seems when I needed to hear them the most. Papaw I love you and will miss you so bad. I don't feel a need to pray for you as much as the rest of us left behind. You meant a lot to us all and were a big part of many lives. I can not think of a single person I look up to more when it comes to integrity, decency, and loving his family.
